

MBC WEEKLY FOR MAY 27, 2018

Rev. J. Brent Walker is the Interim President at the John Leland Center for Theological Studies; he began serving there August 2017. He retired as the executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty in December 2016. Both a member of the Supreme Court Bar and an ordained minister, he first joined the BJC staff in 1989 and became executive director in 1999. Published widely, Walker routinely speaks in churches, educational institutions and denominational gatherings and provides commentary on church-state issues in the national media.

Walker was a partner in the law firm of Carlton Fields in Tampa, Fla., until 1986 when he left to enter Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky. He earned a Master of Divinity degree in 1989 and was named the most outstanding graduate. Walker pastored the Richland Baptist Church in Falmouth, Ky., while in seminary.

After teaching 10 years as an adjunct professor of law at Georgetown University Law Center, Walker later served as an adjunct professor at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond.

Walker earned B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Florida and holds a J.D. degree from Stetson University College of Law. Walker received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from the John Leland Center for Theological Studies in 2013.

His wife, Nancy, is pastor for congregational care at Columbia Baptist Church in Falls Church, Va. They have two children: Ryan is a singer/songwriter, and Layton is a teacher in Falls Church. Layton and her husband, Lucas, are the parents of Walker's two grandchildren.

HELP SEND OUR YOUTH TO PASSPORT MISSIONS CAMP!

Some of the most significant times of faith formation occur during summer camp. For the past 20 years MBC youth have been looking forward to camp each summer where they study scripture, worship, make friends, and serve at mission sites every day. MBC's reduced 2018 budget includes less funding for camper support than we have provided in the past. We need to raise $325 per camper, over and above what each family is paying, to enable everyone to go this year. That breaks down to $65 a night per camper. You can support our youth by sponsoring a camper for one night. Please help us continue to provide this formational experience for our youth by contributing to the scholarship fund. Denote "youth scholarship" in the memo line on your giving envelope or online.
