First Sunday in

Rev. Dr. Emily A. Peck-McClain is an ordained United Methodist pastor from the New York Annual Conference and a professor of Christian Formation and Young Adult Ministries at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. She has pastored churches in New York City and in the Hudson Valley, north of New York City. Prior to coming to Wesley, Emily was professor of Christian Formation, Preaching, and Worship at Eastern Mennonite Seminary in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Dr. Peck-McClain received her doctorate in Christian Education and New Testament from Duke Divinity School and has continued a deep interest in the wisdom Scripture offers the church as we seek to grow in our faith. She is eagerly anticipating the publication of her first book later this year, Arm in Arm with Adolescent Girls: Educating into the New Creation. Emily and her husband Andrew, also a United Methodist pastor, have three children, Zoë, Phoebe, and Ezra, and a very sweet dog named Petra.
